Is a girl who has many many problems which I got read of last year and never took upon myself again. Even though you tried to talk me back into it. And always remember who is important. Even though I don't see you a lot this I always ~~will~~ want to be friends. Always remember Toi and her car and mine people in it we'll have to do it again.

To, my very best and very true friend! Remember all of our good times we ever had there were so many, I don't even know where to begin! All of the times we went shopping. When we went down town. When we went to the Mall, God that was fun.

Remember when I was with Terry and you were with John, that was crazy. But honey you're one person who understands my mind very well. And I want to thank you for listening and understanding my problems.

Cheerleader Camp . . . Football Practice . . .

The life of every student is as different as the many constellations in the universe. Individual, everyday occurrences contribute to the building of a persons life and their future destiny. Within the few years we spend in high school, many new dimensions are added to our outlooks and views on life. The future belongs to us and we all have the opportunity to shape our own lives.

So why not take a chance?
Go ahead and . . .

Student Council

[illegible][illegible]

The first thing I did when I got home was to check my calendar. I had a lot of things to do this week. I had to go to the gym, to the library, and to the store. I also had to do my homework.
 I was a bit tired, but I knew I had to do it.
 I went to the gym first. I did some cardio and then I did some strength training. I felt good after the workout. I then went to the library.
 I borrowed some books and then I did my homework. I finished it at 10 PM. I was happy to be done. I then went to the store to buy some groceries. I bought some fruit, some vegetables, and some meat. I then went home and cooked dinner. I ate it and then went to bed. I was tired, but I was happy.

A black and white photograph of a group of 18 young women, likely a cheerleading squad, posing in three rows. They are wearing matching uniforms consisting of light-colored blouses with dark collars and dark skirts. The background is a simple, light-colored wall.

CO-OP

Many of the students in the group are wearing letterman jackets, suggesting they are members of a school organization or sports team. The students are smiling and looking towards the camera. The gymnasium has a high ceiling and large windows in the background.

The students are dressed in casual attire, including t-shirts, sweaters, and jeans. Some are wearing athletic shoes. The overall atmosphere is positive and energetic.

Ushers

The cheer for which came off the speakers is to their renewed sentiment, as Mervyn found that the Britisher's heart was not so far from being a true one. During and after the war, these few were among the first to return to the country, and they were the first to be elected to the House of Commons. They were the first to be elected to the House of Commons. They were the first to be elected to the House of Commons.

The Program will also very much depend on the quality of the land that he bought. If the land is good then we will be able to get a good price for it. If the land is bad then we will be able to get a low price for it. We will be able to get a good price for the land if it is good. We will be able to

Leechburg Youth For

The Leechburg Youth for the Handicapped is one of the newer organizations in our school. The group was formed to aid the handicapped members of our community. The members of the group tried to involve themselves with these children by becoming participants in community projects. Through their experience, they hope to gain the satisfaction of achievement.

The Library Aides are a big help to the students and Mr. Ferron. They give up their studyhalls to work in the library during lunch and after school. Although everyone appreciates the work the Library Aides do, they do not get the credit they deserve.

STAGE BAND

The Stage Band is a select group of musicians chosen from the Concert Band. These students spend much of their free time practicing and learning the best way to play and perform Jazz Music. They display their talents by performing for special organizations throughout the community and by holding musical assemblies for the student body. This select ed group of musicians is regarded as highly talented and their performances are enjoyed by all.

PEP BAND

The pep band is a group of students who play instruments and sing songs to cheer on the school sports teams. They are a very important part of the school spirit. The pep band is made up of students who are interested in music and want to be part of a team. They practice every week and perform at school events. The pep band is a great way for students to have fun and show their school pride.

The Leechburg Blue Devil Marching Band has once again completed a successful season of halftime performances. Beginning in August, band members gathered on the West Leechburg field to start preparing for the upcoming football games. During hours of practice, the band slowly learned the drills and music for the first halftime show. On the night of the first football game the band entered the crowd with a super performance. As the season progressed and the halftime show changed, the band continued to display their talent at football games and two band festivals. Although occasionally having to deal with muddy fields and low temperatures, the marching band ended the season with a record of first rate performances that every member should be proud of.

Silks

The Silk line started practice in early June for the 1979 Football Season. They sold hooges in Mid-July to pay for their uniforms and their camp fees. The four days at camp, held at Chatham College, helped the girls in many ways. This year they performed two featured routines to "What I Did For Love" and "Grease." The girls' hard work resulted in very good performances. This year's squad deserves much credit for a good performing job throughout the marching season.

Pom-Poms

Under the direction of Rosann Yurchick, Head, and Colleen Phillips, Co-head, this year's Pom Pom squad began practices in early June. In July they sold hoogies to raise money. Some of the money was used to help finance the four days spent at camp held at Chatham College. The remainder of the money paid for the new metallic pom-poms. Once school resumed in the Fall, practices continued, but were held in the evenings. The many long hard practices paid off when the girls were given the chance to display their talents in the first "white-glove routine" to "Basin Street Blues". Although being a member of this year's squad took a lot of work and time, these girls will cherish the memories of this year's marching season.

This year proved to be a very productive one for the Senior Majorettes. Going to majorette camp for the first time started off the preparation for the season. A hoogie sale, morning practices, and band camp added to the hours of work involved with the majorette line. This year the group performed more difficult twirling routines than in the past. The new lighted batons became a favorite among the majorettes — even though they were green. With the leadership of Marisa Olshansky and Barb Ray, the line perfected routine after routine. "Soul Man Fever" plagued the majorettes and everybody actually wanted to practice the peppy dance to this popular tune. Through the cold and mud, the Senior Majorettes twirled and danced their way through every performance providing lively entertainment for the crowds.

The Junior Varsity Majorettes are a talented group of 8th and 9th grade girls. After many long and tiring practices, they got the chance to show their stuff. They marched at a junior high game as well as a junior varsity game to provide entertainment for the audience. Under the leadership of Christine Contino and Tracy Goedicke, the J.V. Majorettes completed a very successful season.

The Junior High Cheerleaders are an enthusiastic bunch of 8th and 9th graders. They show their support for the junior high and 7th and 8th grade football teams. Cheering at the pep rallies added excitement to their job of promoting school spirit. After many hard practices under Debbie Dougherty's guidance, the squad finished the season with many fine performances.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

This year, the Varsity Cheerleaders succeeded in promoting spirit throughout the student body. Their hard work started in May in preparation for cheering camp to be held in June at Indiana University of Pa. After camp was over, the Blue Devil Cheerleaders came home with two blue ribbons and one red ribbon, honors which any group can be proud of. Along with the hard work there were many good times. The cheerleaders always enjoyed performing the funny and entertaining skits at the pep assemblies. One skit that everyone will remember was the pillow people. When one unknown pillow person fell on its bucket "bleep," the crowd totally lost it. Under the enthusiastic leadership of Parry Hadel, the girls completed a superb season. The entire student body and faculty appreciate all the hard work and efforts promoted by the cheerleaders. Thanks girls, for another JOB WELL DONE!

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions, including sales, purchases, and expenses. It emphasizes the need for regular reconciliation and the use of reliable accounting software to ensure data integrity.

2. The second part outlines the various methods for calculating depreciation, such as the straight-line method, the declining balance method, and the sum-of-the-years'-digits method. It provides detailed examples and formulas for each method to help users understand how to apply them correctly.

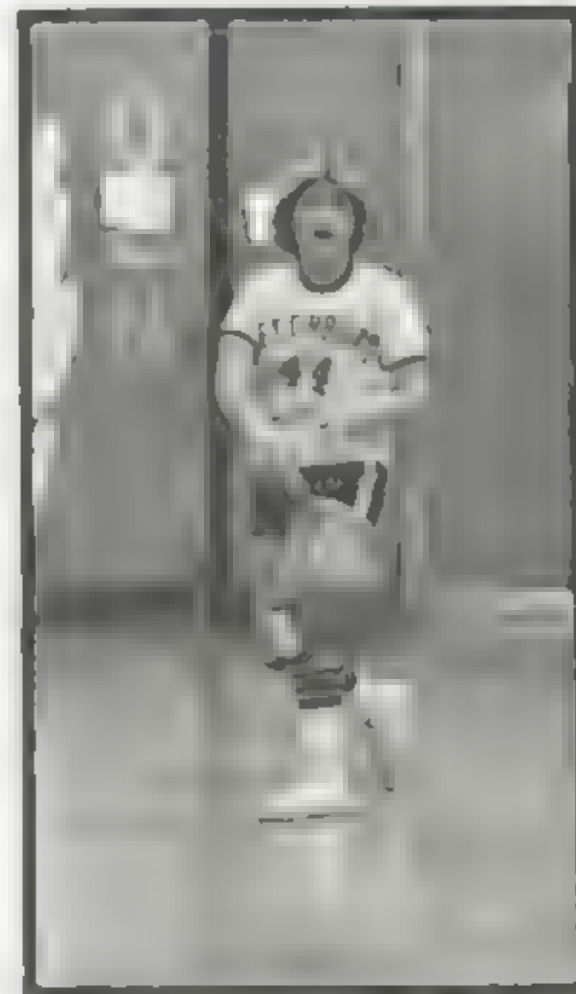

3. The third part covers the treatment of intangible assets, including patents, trademarks, and goodwill. It explains how to determine their fair value and how to amortize them over their useful lives, with specific reference to the relevant accounting standards.

4. The fourth part addresses the complexities of foreign currency transactions, including the identification of functional currencies, the use of the temporal method or the current rate method, and the recognition of foreign exchange gains and losses.

5. The fifth part discusses the impact of inflation on financial statements and the need for adjustments to ensure that the reported figures are meaningful and comparable over time.

6. The sixth part provides a comprehensive overview of the disclosure requirements for financial statements, including the need for clear, concise, and transparent reporting of all material information.

7. The seventh part concludes with a summary of the key principles and practices that underpin high-quality financial reporting, emphasizing the importance of integrity, objectivity, and professional judgment.

THE BASKETBALL TEAM
 The basketball team is made up of players who are skilled and hardworking.
 They practice every day to improve their skills and teamwork. The team is led by their coach, who provides guidance and support throughout the season.

At the beginning of the season, the team was nervous but quickly gained confidence.
 They played their first game and won easily. The team's success was due to their hard work and dedication. They continued to practice and improve their skills, and they were able to win several more games. The team's success was a result of their teamwork and hard work.

Linda
 To much girl
 I met last year and got to know her this year though John and I very glad I did meet you you didn't of from
 And I really hope to see you over the summer and next year
 good luck
 with John

Lisa "523"

Linda
 To a very nice girl I really got to know this year. Have fun with John.
 Randy

Linda To a very good friend who sits behind me in science and puts up with a hell of alot from me

Linda,
 To a friend
 I got to know this year. Remember cheerleading
 the muddy games,
 pep rallies, the bus rides with those 2 certain people, the time I came up to your house, an yucky gym, the other team,
 cheerleaders & everything else R. M. or else.
 I hope I'll see you out the pool & let cheerleading
 practice start,
 busy

To Linda,
To a nice (well built) Person who I met last year in English an study hall because you sat behind me in English and beck me in study hall and I made you sorta sick with my hitter signs.

Also I found out this year that you are the opposite in kind of a way.

Also hope to see you this summer every once in a while.

Your friend,
John C.
H

Linda,
Go a real
"different" person who gets quite touchy at the word "dago"
and knows what it means
Good luck
Dance 13

TO LINDA
TO A VERY NICE AND
PRETTY GIRL
I MET TH
YEAR 1
HOPE W
CAN
FRIE YOUR FRIEND

To Linda

A girl who's just as beautiful inside as well as out, She gave me confidence to help me make it through my difficult times. I thank her for that.
I had a crush on her but never told anyone. Hope to see you this summer up the pool. Your friend!

Your friend,
Greg W

This is nothing Bad

To a semi Grouchy Person who is always semi Grouchy
Dance 13

It is so good and clean

To A very sensible Swell looking person
And has the biggest smile your a good friend lets keep it that way Hope to see you this summer
Dance 13

TO LINDA,

THE GREATEST FRIEND IN THE WORLD. (Ha Ha) Just kidding.
NOW LET'S SEE WHAT CAN I REMEMBER. OH, YA, ALL OF RUMBALLS?
HISTORY TEST, MID QUARTERS, S.H. AND MOVIES THAT DIDNT HAVE ANYTHING TO DO WITH WHAT WE WERE STUDYING. WHAT ELSE CAN I REMEMBER, I DID NEED A CHANGE OF COLOR I GUESS.
JOANNE IS WAITING FOR THIS BUT I DONT CARE BECAUSE THIS YEAR I'll FINISH IT ~~while~~ WHILE SCHOOL'S still in session REMEMBER ALL OF MR. L...'S BORING CLASSES. I don't think we really learned anything in his class. Except for you not liking to be called a "DECO". So what else CAN I REMEMBER WE DID. CHEERLEADING, ON THE BASKETBALL BUS SUE & JAMIE. I really thought that was ignorant. All the games we went to that it ruined and we all looked like rats that came out of a sewer. I can't wait till we have that dance marathon I hope it's funner than the one last year. AS I write this I see you and John laying on the floor in the chorus room. It looks like your elbow is "where it hurts". I & you know what I mean. ↑ ↑ ↑ ↑

I hope your feet were as sore as mine after the concert mine hurt like h - l and then serving at that ~~sp~~ Dinner I can't spell long noodles ~~th~~ with sauce Ha Ha, Remember legs at 6:00 in the morning ~~th~~ and after every Sat, Morning practice. Can we "do it" every morning of the last week of school. I hope so. Don't take that ignorantly You and John look like you'll go far and I hope you do. As far as you want to gooo ooo... IS you get my drift. I can't wait till the pool this year. Thanks for everything you helped me with. like problems with certain people and personal problems well I hope Christy Dries up and dies and never comes back, well the bells going to ring bye

Love Always Joanne
not Personal

P.S. I hope you and John go as far and as long as you can
